CCI reserves the right to alter or suspend credit or change credit terms based solely on CCI’s discretion. CCI objects to and is not bound by any terms or conditions on Buyer’s order which attempt to impose on CCI any terms or conditions in variance with CCI’s terms and conditions. CCI’s prices are subject to change without notice. Unless otherwise stated, all quotations from CCI are firm for a period of 60 days. Such prices quoted do not include federal, state or local taxes, VAT, customs, transportation costs or surcharges, or duties; all of which shall be paid by Buyer. 2. Limited Warranty. CCI provides a two year warranty to the original user: CCI products will be free from defects in materials and workmanship for a period of two years after the date CCI ships such products. If any CCI products are found to be defective in material or workmanship during the applicable warranty period, CCI’s entire liability, and Buyer’s sole and exclusive remedy, shall be the repair, replacement or return of purchase price as determined in CCI’s sole discretion. CCI shall not be liable for expenses, damages or loss, whether direct or indirect, associated with the installation, operation, removal or re-installation of any defective product. All shipping and freight costs are the responsibility of the Buyer. CCI’s limited warranty shall not be effective or actionable unless Buyer complies with all installation and operating instructions furnished by CCI, or if the products have been properly installed, used or altered without the written consent of CCI or if such products have been subject to accident, misuse, mishandling, tampering, negligence, improper installation, or improper maintenance. Any warranty claim must be submitted to CCI in writing within the stated warranty period and as soon as such alleged defect is known to Buyer. Warranty repairs are to be performed at CCI’s factory with the transportation cost of returning material to be repaired or considered for replacement under warranty to be the obligation of Buyer.

CCI shall not, under any circumstance, be liable for direct, indirect, incidental, special, consequential or punitive damages (including, but not limited to, loss of profits, revenue or business) or damage or injury to persons or property in any way related to the manufacture or the use of its products. The exclusion applies regardless of whether such damages are sought based on breach of warranty, breach of contract, negligence, strict in tort, or any other legal theory, even if CCI has notice of the possibility of such damages.

5. Ownership of Work. CCI shall be the owner of all work created for Buyer under this agreement or any purchase orders. CCI shall be the exclusive owner of all ownership rights in such products created under such purchase orders or agreements. Buyer agrees to not reverse engineer or in any other way copy, or hire a 3rd party to reverse engineer or in any other way copy, such products provided hereunder.

6. Buyer’s Rights Related to Shipments, Rescheduling and Cancellation. All statements of prospective date of shipments are estimated. Firm orders that have been accepted are subject to cancellation by Buyer, or changes in specifications only on the basis of CCI being reimbursed for the costs incurred. The Buyer shall specify the method of delivery, transportation costs and will ship accordingly. All transportation costs of products or material shipped from CCI or returned to CCI will be the obligation of the Buyer. Cancellation by Buyer cannot be effective except on terms which will indemnify Seller from loss of the order. Buyer’s proposed terms as to such indemnity and not as to other matters relating to cancellation are accepted, if they fulfill this condition. Orders for special material and quantities that exceed four times the average monthly shipmen of a single item are non-cancelable, non-returnable. No material (except defective material) will be taken back and credited or replaced except upon consent and upon terms and conditions agreed upon by the Seller in writing. Buyer remains responsible for freight charges, duties, VAT and sales taxes in the event that Buyer’s preferred shipping method is not used. Buyer requested schedule changes from the original accepted purchase order will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis. Buyer will be solely responsible for any expedite charges, overtime, or other expenses necessary for “Pull-ins”. “Push-outs” will be accepted for up to 6 months from original delivery provided the reschedule is received 4 weeks prior to original shipment date.

7. Returns. Authorization, in the form of a Returned Material Authorization number (RMA#) and shipping instructions for the return of any product must be obtained by the Buyer from CCI. Returned materials will be accepted only if CCI’s RMA form has been completed, authorized in advance, and transportation pre-paid. A restocking fee of up to 20% may be charged in addition to any expense incurred to restore goods to as-new condition. This fee will be deducted from the credit to be issued covering the return unless the cost is covered by the warranty. In the event the cost to restore to as-new condition exceeds 50% cost of a new unit, the returned unit will be considered scrap and no credit will be issued. Special goods, quantities that exceed four times the average monthly shipment or obsolete designs differing from the current standard product are not subject to return for credit. Final determination as to whether a product is actually defective or in warranty rests with CCI.

8. Risk of Loss. Unless otherwise agreed in writing by CCI, delivery will be made and title will pass EXWORKS at the point of shipment. The transportation expenses shall be paid by the Buyer. Risk of loss or damage shall fall upon the Buyer. The Buyer assumes full responsibility to apply for any shipment insurance deemed necessary and to file any claims for loss or damage with the carrier.

14. Seller’s Rights Related to Delays, Rescheduling or Cancellation. Notwithstanding anything above, it shall not be considered a breach or default of this Agreement if CCI, in its reasonable discretion has to reschedule or cancel a shipment to the extent that such delay or failure is caused by an occurrence beyond the control of CCI, including but not limited to acts of governmental authorities, acts of god, the discovery of materially different conditions related to the availability of materials or labor to fulfill the shipment, wars, riots, rebellions, sabotage, fire, explosions, accidents, floods, strikes, lockouts, changes in laws, regulations, ordinances, health concerns, pandemics, epidemics or any other reason in the reasonable discretion of CCI that is not able to prevent shipment in its terms as initially set forth in this Agreement. In the event CCI intends to invoke this provision, CCI shall provide notice to the Buyer as soon as possible after the occurrence of an event giving rise to the use of this provision.
